Community notes

If you aren't actively typing, please park your cursor here!

Suggestion for how to handle / represent internal docs or workflows in the Resource Library:

Could create a Zotero record (without URL or PDFs etc.) and indicate in the Notes if you're willing to share documents and what kinds of documents you have / how to contact you?

Some resources:

- U.S. National Archives and Records Administration Digital Preservation Framework
- CoreTrustSeal Documentation Suite (template policies and documentation for data repositories, currently in review / seeking feedback!)
- DPC Technology Watch Publications
- DPC Community Archives Digital Preservation Toolkit
- NASIG Model Digital Preservation Policy
- Digital Preservation Step by Step

Other collections of resources / similar types of work:

- DPC Registries of Good Practice
- Community Owned digital Preservation Tool Registry \(COPTR\)
- Data Curation Commons

Topics of interest / folks on the call looking for resources on:

- Preservation policies and workflows (community archives context)
- Digital forensics information and workflows (esp. in regards to extracting file info from floppy disks)
